

Generation Information of the Scientific Library of the International Higher School of Medicine

The Scientific Library of the International Higher School of Medicine was founded in 2003. It is one of the important structural units of the IHSM and is designed to support the learning, educational and scientific processes, as well as to provide an access to domestic and global knowledge and information.

As of 01.09, 2024 the total number of storage units of the library fund is 20,900 copies, including:

- printed editions — 17, 422 copies.
- electronic editions — 3,478 copies.

The total area of the library is 893.7m².

The library funds are located in 4 educational buildings:

- Central Building (Bishkek, Intergel'po street 1F, 5th floor);
- Clinical Simulation Center (Bishkek, Lev Tolstoy street 117A, 3rd floor);
- Educational and Morphological Center (Bishkek, Lev Tolstoy street 114/1, 1st floor);
- Issyk-Kul Campus (Cholpon-Ata, Akin Jumaliev street 1 A, 2nd building 1st floor).

The structure of the library includes 4 subscriptions, 3 reading and computer rooms for 259 seats.

The library's computer park consists of 109 computers with Internet access, free Wi-Fi, office combines (3x1) for scanning and printing educational and training materials.

The website of the library is <http://library.ism.edu.kg> it also contains general information about structure and funds of the library, use rules, as well as all the necessary links to electronic resources available locally and remotely.

Electronic Library: <http://lib.ism.edu.kg/> The login and password for the Electronic Library can be obtained from librarians or contacts

Contacts: E-mail: library@ism.edu.kg; Telephone: +996 312 65 06 48